News Of Servicemen

Modern mobile marines, ready to deliver a knock-out punch to threatening aggressor powers, provide America with a "big stick" to carry in defense of free men around the Globe.

Becoming a part of this mighty deterrent force, Pvt. Leroy Hutchins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin L. Hutchins of 20550 S. Earl St., Torrance, and Pvt. Robert J. Fletcher, son of Mrs. Farrell F. Fletcher, 1943 W. 236th St., Torrance, competed recruit training, July 11, at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego.

Their 11-week training course included physical conditioning, Marine Corps history, customs and courtesies, hygiene, sanitation and basic military subjects.

Three weeks were spent firing the M-1 rifle and studying other basic infantry weapons.

They are scheduled to report to Camp Pendleton for combat infantry training then will receive specialized basic aviation instruction at the Naval Air Technical Training Center, Memphis, Tenn.

CORWIN

Marine Cpl. Thomas F. Corwin, son of Mrs. Elizabeth R. Corwin of 428 Harbor Hills, Lomita, is serving with the First Service Regiment at Camp Pendleton.

Camp Pendleton, the world's largest marine installation, is the site for combat infantry training of all recruits processed at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego.

HUTCHINS

Hard-hitting, fast-moving, and far-ranging, the attack aircraft carrier is the Navy's chief weapon for controlling the seas.

Serving aboard the USS Lexington, an attack aircraft carrier operating out of San Diego, is Don A. Lancaster, seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lancaster of 175 W. Jay St., Torrance.

Forming the heart of the Navy's striking forces, the carrier's aircraft range far, ready to engage an enemy's sea, air, and ground forces. Carriers are on station around the world maintaining vital sea lanes and watching for possible aggressive moves.

The Lexington, a unit of the powerful Pacific First Fleet, operates along the western coast of the U.S.

The ships of Amphibious Squadron Five, commanded by Navy Captain R. B. Erly, will arrive in San Diego later this month from service with the powerful Seventh Fleet in the Far East.

Serving aboard the attack cargo ship USS Seminole, one of the ships of the squadron, is L. R. White, seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. George B. White of 3610 W. 225th, Torrance, and Gary R. Shore, seaman, USN, son of Mrs. Wesley Strayers of 1601 W. 205th St., Torrance.

During their 8 1/2 months in the Western Pacific, the ships delivered 734 tons of Operation Handclasp relief goods donated by American citizens, participated in the giant SEATO exercise Pony Express on the coast of North Borneo, received more than 8,000 local visitors in "open houses" held in many Far Eastern ports and donated more than 2,500 pints of blood to foreign Red Cross agencies.

The squadron's landing ships and cargo vessels supply the transportation backbone for amphibious assaults.

Army Acting Sergeant Kenneth E. Wattenbarger, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Wattenbarger, Caddo Gap, Ark., recently was awarded the Army Commendation Medal while serving with Headquarters Detachment of the 57th Artillery, a Nike-Hercules missile unit at Fort MacArthur.

Wattenbarger received the award for his outstanding performance of duties as a wrecker operator and as a consolidated motor pool section leader in the detachment.

His wife, Mary, lives at 25528 Pennsylvania Ave., Lomita.

PVT RONALD L. ALLEN

Army Pvt. Ronald L. Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vonley C. Allen, 1663 W. 215th, Torrance recently completed eight weeks of military police training at The Provost Marshal General's School, Fort Gordon, Ga.

Allen received instruction in self defense, traffic control and the basic procedures of civil and military law.

Allen entered the army last February and completed basic training at Fort Ord. The 17-year-old soldier attended Narbonne High School in Lomita.

Assigned to the destroyer USS Douglas H. Fox for a summer training cruise are 10 midshipmen from Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps units at colleges and universities all over the nation.

Among the middies is midshipman first class Richard W. Hastings, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hastings of 25415 Feijoa Ave., Lomita.

The midshipmen boarded the Fox at Augusta Bay, Sicily, after crossing the Atlantic aboard the anti-submarine warfare support aircraft carrier USS Wasp. They are receiving practical "at sea" experience in seamanship, navigation, engineering and gunnery, to help prepare them for commissions as naval officers.

They are scheduled to return to the U.S. via air, landing at Friendship International Airport, Baltimore, on July 24. Two of the ports they will visit on the cruise are Beau Lieu on the French Riviera and La Spezia, Italy.

Three soldiers from Torrance are receiving eight weeks of advanced individual training at The Artillery and Missile Center, Fort Sill, Okla. The training is scheduled to end August 4.

They are being trained in the duties of a cannoneer with the 105-millimeter howitzer, a light field artillery weapon.

The men entered the Army last March and completed basic training at Fort Ord. They are:

Pvt. Charles A. Buchanan, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buchanan, 22719 Susana, attended George Washington High School.

Pvt. Norman P. Schumert, 22, son of Mrs. Elsie A. Schumert, 23701 S. Western, attended Torrance High School. Before entering the Army, he was employed by the Leeds Shoe Store.

Pvt. James M. Presley Jr., 18, whose parents live at 3232 187th St., attended Trumann (Ark.) High School.
